Binay defies suspension order of DILG

By [Name]

Manila—Following several months of intense negotiations, the Department of the Interior (DILG) has finally ordered the suspension of Mayor Binay from his post as the head of the local government unit (LGU) of Manila.

The suspension order, which is the first of its kind, was issued by the DILG Secretary, Neri Conrado, after a series of meetings and consultations with the Mayor's office.

Mayor Binay, who has been in office since 2007, has been accused of various administrative and financial irregularities.

Binay denies charges

Mayor Binay, however, has denied the charges and has vowed to continue his work as Mayor of Manila. He has also expressed his confidence in the DILG's decision.

The suspension order is a significant move by the DILG, as it marks the first time a local official has been suspended from his post.

The order also states that Mayor Binay will be suspended from his post for a period of 30 days.

Who should insure your vehicle?

The big fight over Compulsory Third Party Liability insurance

By Jerry D. Lina

When it comes to vehicle insurance, there is a big fight over Compulsory Third Party Liability insurance. The Insurance Commission (IC) is currently reviewing the existing law on this matter, and it is expected that a new law will be passed soon. This new law will require all vehicle owners to purchase Compulsory Third Party Liability insurance, which will cover the cost of damages to third parties in the event of an accident. This is a controversial issue, as many vehicle owners believe that this insurance is unnecessary and that it will increase the cost of their vehicle insurance. However, the IC believes that this insurance is necessary to protect third parties and to ensure that they are compensated in the event of an accident.

Cut in chicken import duty sought

By Christine G. Banaag

MANILA, Sept. 15 — The Philippine Chicken Producers' Association (PCPA) has requested the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) to lower the import duty on chicken.

The PCPA claims that the current import duty on chicken is too high and is making it difficult for local producers to compete with foreign imports. They are requesting a reduction in the duty to help support the local industry.

Weekly, off-road groups from the South Carolina Game Warden's Office (SCGWO) have been tracking their wayward deer through the Florida Panhandle.

During a 10-hour drive in early and mid-June, we counted more than 100 deer.

After about 100 miles, the lead car was a 1999 Nissan Altima carrying two men.

As we drove to "Wildlife Station," the habitat of white-tailed Kays (a species of deer), we saw signs of the Florida and Georgia deer herds crossing in the Florida and Georgia Panhandle.

Some deer were seen, but the deer were not seen.
